Regarding News Reports

Yesterday, Mergermarket reported in an English article for paid subscribers that our company commenced a bidding process in connection with a potential privatization. However, this matter has not been announced by our company.

As part of our ongoing efforts to enhance corporate value, we continuously explore a range of strategic options. While it is true that the aforementioned process is being carried out as part of these considerations, no decisions have been made at this time.

Should any facts requiring disclosure arise, our company will make an announcement in a timely and appropriate manner.
